KPA
KELLER PERSONALITY ASSESSMENT

Job Fit Report

Danica Joy Austria

Position: Team: Executive Assistant
Completed: April 29, 2026

KELLERWILLIAMS

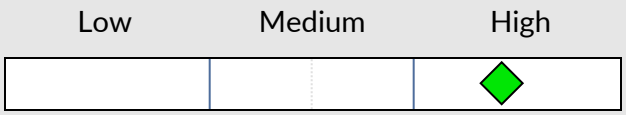

The information contained in this report and all other information available about any person should be considered as a whole. It should never be used as the sole basis for making a hiring, developmental or promotional decision. This report is intended to be used in accordance with all applicable laws, compliance with which is the responsibility of the employer.

Copyright © 2026 All material herein is copyrighted by its respective authors. All Rights Reserved.

Summary

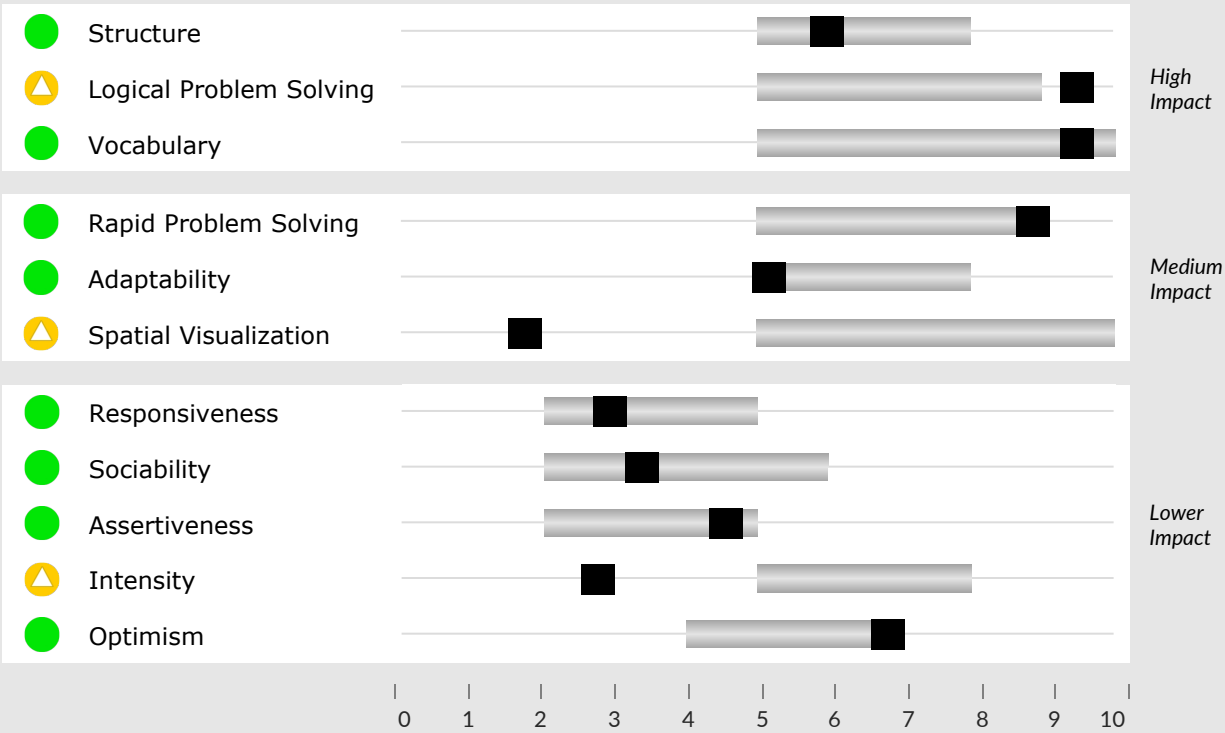

The graphs below show how well Danica Joy matches with the behavior and thinking traits required in the job of Team: Executive Assistant.

Job Match Rating

Danica Joy has an overall High fit with the job of Team: Executive Assistant.

Job Match Detail

Green Dot - Strong match between the person and the job.

Yellow Triangle - Some mismatch that may or may not be significant.

Red Dash - Significant mismatch is a source of concern.

Black Box - The person's score for each trait.

Grey Bar - The target range for the job. Scales without gray bars are considered not predictive for the job.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Job Match Review

This section describes the key behavior and thinking traits in order of their importance to the job. Consider how each trait might impact Danica Joy in the job of Team: Executive Assistant.

Higher Impact

Structure

Danica Joy works most effectively in a structured environment that provides uniform operating procedures and a clear definition of performance standards. She prefers certainty, predictability, and consistent measurements in her work efforts.

Logical Problem Solving

Danica Joy works very well with complex problems and strategic issues. She can explain her solutions logically and can communicate them in such a way as to gain buy-in from others.

Vocabulary

Danica Joy is an avid learner who picks up new concepts easily and quickly. She is interested in a wide variety of topics and she constantly seeks out new ideas and concepts. In new environments she can readily pick up information, social rules, priorities and culture. She is able to grasp subtlety and nuance in communication, which can positively impact the precision with which she interacts with others.

Medium Impact

Rapid Problem Solving

Danica Joy feels confident when asked to make quick decisions. She is comfortable in situations where she has to think on her feet. She can quickly identify patterns or themes from incoming information to solve problems.

Adaptability

Danica Joy can adjust and be flexible in her interpersonal relationships. She will respect and respond to people's legitimate expectations while maintaining her independence. She will not usually compromise just to please others.

Spatial Visualization

Danica Joy prefers tasks that don't involve visualizing complex systems with multiple variables or moving parts. Tasks such as visualizing engineering, technical, mechanical, or structural problems, and other spatial requirements will generally not be her strengths.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Lower Impact

Responsiveness

Danica Joy displays a high degree of emotional composure. She is perceived as stable under pressure and reliable in carrying out daily routines. She is less comfortable with rapid changes or continuing time pressures, and she would prefer to work at a steady and relaxed pace.

Sociability

Danica Joy is an affable and socially receptive person who tends to work well with a range of people. She avoids calling attention to herself, and she usually hesitates to initiate new relationships on her own. Typically, she is perceived as courteous, agreeable and open to a variety of personalities.

Assertiveness

Danica Joy is a moderately assertive person who is steady and consistent in her work approach. She moves forward most assuredly in situations where she has acquired hands-on experience and has a good grasp of what she needs to do to get results. She most prefers to follow tried-and-true methods.

Intensity

Danica Joy strives for mutually agreeable solutions to conflicts and obstacles. She will want to collaborate to gain consensus and approval at work.

Optimism

Danica Joy maintains a generally positive sense of the future, and likes to see positives in others and situations. She will sometimes maintain this positive sense even when the objective situation does not warrant it.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Operating Style

A person's behavior and thinking traits combine together in unique ways to impact the way she or she works with and communicates with others.

Communication

Danica Joy is cordial and low key in her communications, and she is comfortable listening and patiently developing rapport. She generally impresses people as down-to-earth, unpretentious, and sure of herself. She is not quick to impose her ideas, as she likes time to listen and think things through before responding. She tends to be purposeful and matter-of-fact when expressing or promoting her views. Being independent and self-reliant, she may not actively seek unnecessary communication with others, particularly when she is focusing on priority tasks and projects.

Decision Making

Danica Joy takes time to gather the facts and to impartially evaluate options. She emphasizes common-sense reasoning and practical benefits to justify her choices. She is deliberate and patient in her problem-solving approach. She avoids being influenced by social pressures and popular opinion. She trusts her own assessments and conclusions and does not depend heavily on others for advice or validation. She is apt to be most receptive to opposing views that are fact-based.

Ideal Environment

Danica Joy is a quietly resolute and self-reliant person who enjoys managing her time and devising work strategies independently. She does not look to others for detailed direction and close monitoring to keep herself motivated. She is receptive to identified goals but prefers having a choice of methods for achieving them. She may resist a highly structured or restrictive environment. She seeks reasonable privacy and the freedom to work largely on her own. She works calmly and steadily, and she may be uneasy with many rapid changes, urgent demands, or unplanned deadlines.

Ideal Supervisor

Danica Joy's ideal supervisor is comfortable delegating and providing her with choices and problem-solving responsibility. She likes to be self-managed and to have freedom to develop work strategies. She can be thorough and systematic on her own without step-by-step direction. She may feel stifled by a highly structured or bureaucratic environment. She is very much a personal performer who values concrete goals and tangible rewards as well as the opportunity to operate autonomously.

Team Dynamics

While Danica Joy is not highly extroverted or forcefully assertive, she enjoys solving practical problems and working with people on a purposeful, collaborative basis. She is congenial and good-natured in her social interactions, and she has good capacity for cultivating positive relationships with peers. She avoids getting emotionally involved with people and losing objectivity. She is quietly independent, and she likes to pursue her priorities while treating others respectfully and resolving differences through cooperative give-and-take.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Descriptive Review

Danica Joy's traits do not exist in isolation of each other. Each trait impacts the others. Below is an integrated view of Danica Joy. As you read this section, consider how Danica Joy might perform as a Team: Executive Assistant.

Danica Joy can work effectively and cooperatively with people, teams and established procedures. She will be assertive, patient and deliberate in pursuit of her objectives. She is aggressive and able to take initiative. She may not be as forceful when dealing with people since she prefers to focus on getting a job done rather than controlling others. She has good behavioral control. Although she solves problems quickly, she is not one to react with undue haste, and her measured, deliberate responses can have a calming effect on others.

She can adjust and be flexible in her interpersonal relationships. She will respect and respond to people's legitimate expectations while maintaining her independence. She will not usually compromise just to avert conflict. She prefers to work within a fairly well-structured environment. She enjoys having latitude and areas of choice but is uncomfortable with open-ended jobs that provide little feedback on performance. She is low-key and thoughtful in her approach to social influence and persuasion. She is not motivated by a strong need for social dominance or control.

Danica Joy will interact with people in a businesslike or polite manner. She is most at ease with people she knows and will be purposeful in seeking out new relationships. She is often upbeat and positive in attitude. She strives for mutually agreeable solutions to conflict and obstacles. She will seek to maintain harmony rather than engage in confrontation.

She is a natural problem solver and likes a steady flow of new problems at work. She can quickly identify solutions to daily problems as well as work methodically through larger, more complex issues. She can provide logical and linear explanations that greatly aid in her communication and persuasion.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Job Considerations

Danica Joy has an overall high fit with the behavior and talent traits required in the job of Team: Executive Assistant. When evaluating potential job fit, it's helpful to examine each mismatch between Danica Joy and the job targets.

Other Mismatches

Yellow mismatches are not considered overly important but are worth noting.

Logical Problem Solving

Job Fit Description

The Logical Problem Solving job target is High. People with high Logical Problem Solving are able to think through complex problems in a methodical, linear manner and can typically communicate their solutions effectively.

Danica Joy scored above the target range.

Considerations

- She may at times find herself bogged down by overcomplicating issues which might have been solved more quickly
- She may make simple issues more complicated than they really are.

Spatial Visualization

Job Fit Description

The Spatial Visualization job target is High. People with high Spatial Visualization can easily picture and work with three dimensions in their minds.

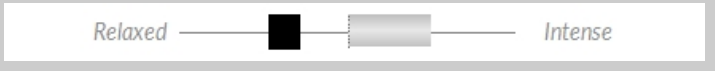

Danica Joy scored significantly below the target.

Considerations

- It may be difficult for her to give others direction on changes and corrections in the areas of manufacturing, tangible structures, or construction of any kind.
- She may find it difficult to think about and understand changes to designs, structures, and processes.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Intensity

Job Fit Description

The Intensity job target is Medium. People with medium Intensity have the flexibility to either react quickly or stop and think when hitting obstacles.

Danica Joy scored somewhat below the target range.

Considerations

- She will sometimes be reluctant to confront situations or express herself.
- She will sometimes internalize her thoughts to avoid confrontation or disagreement.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Trait Definitions: Behavior

Behavioral traits describe how a person acts. Individuals who score at the highest and lowest points have more pronounced characteristics.

0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

DEFINITION	LOW	HIGH
1) ASSERTIVENESS taking initiative	RESERVED • Achieve goals through cooperation and good planning • Conservative in action • Move slowly to action • Faced with obstacles, tends to stop and reassess before moving forward again • Typically receptive to the actions of others	ASSERTIVE • Determined, persistent, and direct • Willing to move forward, take actions, and solve problems • May be confrontational and stubborn
2) SOCIABILITY the desire to work with others	TASK ORIENTED • Introspective and enjoy working with things and ideas • Must work at interacting with others, and may find long periods of social interaction stressful • Low sociability usually does not indicate unfriendliness, but a preference for fewer social contacts and less tendency to actively seek new relationships	PEOPLE ORIENTED • Driven to interact with others • Prefers not to work alone for extended periods of time and actively seeks new relationships • Tends to have a wide circle of contacts and acquaintances
3) RESPONSIVENESS how a person reacts and responds	CALM • Steady, calm, and patient • Works at a slower, composed pace to accommodate their reaction time • Tends to internalize their feelings and opinions	IMPATIENT • Fast-paced, excitable and impatient • Prefers an exciting, hectic, fast-paced work environment and likes a lot of things happening at once • Expresses themselves outwardly, rather than holding in their feelings when responding to external events
4) STRUCTURE the need to seek order and certainty	FLEXIBLE • Greater tolerance for ambiguity • More concerned with outcomes than following rules and established procedures	LIKES ORDER • Prefers order and certainty • Follows the rules and established procedures • Uncomfortable with uncertainty and ambiguity • Accurate and thorough
5) ADAPTABILITY the desire to accommodate others	INDEPENDENT • Independent minded and less concerned about the impact of their behavior on others. • Does not readily take other people's thoughts and feelings when making a decision.	ACCOMMODATING • Very concerned about other people's thoughts and feelings when deciding what to do or say • Diplomatic and tactful • Wants to be on positive terms with most people
6) INTENSITY the degree of reaction	COOL • Reacts less strongly when frustrated • Seeks a more reasoned or logical approach to resolution	HOT • When frustrated, responds with a high level of emotional vigor. Whether or not this frustration or vigor is displayed outwardly depends on a person's level of responsiveness
7) OPTIMISM the degree of positive thinking	SKEPTICAL • Actively looks for potential problems and worry about what could go wrong	OPTIMISTIC • Feels cheerful and upbeat most of the time and may ignore negative information.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Trait Definitions: Thinking

Thinking traits describe how a person processes ideas and problems.

0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

DEFINITION	NOT PREFERRED	PREFERRED
1) LOGICAL PROBLEM SOLVING the preference to think through large, complicated problems in a linear, step-by-step way	• May prefer rapid-fire approach • Will use tried and tested approaches when applicable	• Utilizes a methodical, process-oriented approach to solving problems. • Strategic thinkers, able to organize their ideas • Easily communicates solutions to others.
2) RAPID FIRE PROBLEM SOLVING the preference to deal quickly with many problems, one after the other	• May prefer logical approach • Will apply models and systems	• Tends to "just know" the answers, but not necessarily how to explain them to others • Good with quick, seat-of-the-pants problem-solving situations
3) SPATIAL VISUALIZATION a natural ability to hold, manipulate, and think about three dimensions in one's mind.	• Rather than picturing three dimensions in their mind, will utilize more labor-intensive strategies when working on spatial problems	• Can easily picture three dimensional objects and space in their minds • Tries out spatial solutions to problems mentally, without having to go through the intense labor of actually constructing something • Enjoys working with things and they like the product of their labor to be something that someone could actually touch or see
4) VOCABULARY a measure of the number and precision of the concepts a person uses in understanding and learning from experience.	• More deliberate in understanding and processing new ideas and may leverage more visual or kinesthetic modes of thought when dealing with their experiences.	• Quick to pick up and understand new ideas and concepts and able to quickly leverage them in dealing with new experiences.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

KPA
KELLER PERSONALITY ASSESSMENT

Job Fit Consulting Guide

Danica Joy Austria

Position: Team: Executive Assistant
Completed: April 29, 2026

KELLERWILLIAMS

The information contained in this report and all other information available about any person should be considered as a whole. It should never be used as the sole basis for making a hiring, developmental or promotional decision. This report is intended to be used in accordance with all applicable laws, compliance with which is the responsibility of the employer.

Copyright © 2026 All material herein is copyrighted by its respective authors. All Rights Reserved.

How to Use this Guide

Making a decision to hire a candidate or not has long-lasting implications for both the organization and the candidate. In making a decision, the factors for consideration include knowledge, skills, track record, personality, fit with company culture, and references.

To make the most informed decision possible about whether Danica Joy is a good fit for the Team: Executive Assistant job this guide provides:

1. Interviewer Prep Notes
   - Instructions on how to prepare for and conduct the interview, as well as decision point scripts
2. Scripts
   - Questions to be used in the interviews, with room for notes
3. Forms

For these steps in the Career Visioning Process:

Step Two: Interviews	1. Job Fit Verification	☐
	2. Thought Process	☐
	3. References	☐
	4. Life Story	☐
	5. Motivational	☐
Step Three: Perspective	6. Group	☐
	7. Defense	☐
Step Four: Commitment	8. Expectations Conversation and Offer	☐

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

1: Job Fit Verification Interview

Review the three steps below before you conduct the interview.

Step One: Prepare for the Interview

1. Thoroughly review the Job Fit Report for Danica Joy.

2. Study the script and probing suggestions for Danica Joy; edit the questions and add your own if necessary.

3. Check your mindset—your goal is to be objective.

   - Stay neutral, curious, and *listen
   - Watch your body language — don't nod, agree, cross arms, or lean forward or back
   - It's not a conversation — other than asking questions, don't engage with her and share personal experiences

Step Two: Conduct the Interview

1. Welcome Danica Joy to the interview and make her comfortable:

   > Danica Joy, thank you for coming in today. The reason I wanted to meet with you is to get to know you better, and understand some of the things that are important to you. At the end of our discussion, we can both determine if it makes sense to continue our conversation.

2. Introduce the verification process and set expectations:

   > I'm sure you are curious about the Keller Personality Assessment (or KPA) you completed for us, and I am excited to share the results. The report we have received describes your unique combination of traits. Each trait has beneficial aspects, so remember that there is no good or bad combination of traits! My goal is to truly understand who you are and how you operate, and review and edit the report together to get a custom report that is all about you. You are going to hear some great things about yourself—be proud of who you are! Ready to get started?(Big Smile!)

3. Follow the instructions for the Job Considerations, Operating Style and Descriptive Review, beginning each section by reading the heading and the purpose of the section.

4. Take notes throughout the interview, capturing words and phrases Danica Joy uses as exactly as possible.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Step Three: Decision Point

Decide if Danica Joy is a good fit with the Team: Executive Assistant job.

1. Verify the report with Danica Joy, recording her responses in the Candidate Report Rating.

> On a scale of 1 to 10, how would you rate this report?
> Specifically, what was most accurate?
> What would you say was least accurate?
> Overall, do you have any comments or feedback on the report?

2. STOP if Danica Joy is not a match, and exit with class:

> Thanks so much for your time today! I've really enjoyed getting to know you. We are in the process of interviewing several other candidates, and will be in touch (provide a date if possible and follow up with a call or email to let Danica Joy know she did not get the job).
>
> (Or, refer to the job ranking) This role would not make the best use of your talents as you can see, (show Danica Joy her Job Match Rating) but this/these roles would be an excellent fit (show her her Job Match rating for the role/s). (If you are hiring for that role or can refer Danica Joy to someone who is) I would be happy to talk to you about that opportunity.
>
> Respond to possible questions:
> What's the next step?
> - I'll review the edits we made today in line with the Job Profile and determine if we have a match.
>
> What's the report for?
> - My goal today was to really get to know you as a person. Now I'll review the edits we made today in line with the Job Profile and determine if we have a match.
>
> Can I have a copy of my report?
> - I'm sorry, while I have shared with you everything generated by the report, we do not release the printed copy.

3. MOVE FORWARD if Danica Joy is a match:

> You are a close match for this position, and I'd like to continue the interview process. I have some more questions I'd like to ask, and I am sure you will have some questions for me! Let's take a quick break and continue! (Offer a beverage and give Danica Joy a few minutes to relax.)

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Job Considerations I

This section describes each of Danica Joys's traits in relation to the job of Team: Executive Assistant.

Read each statement about the trait to Danica Joy and ask her how the statement sounds to her. Follow up with one or more of the probing questions that are provided for each trait. Be sure to dig into each example her gives you with statements like "tell me more", "give me another example", and "walk me through".

Structure

Ask Danica Joy

On a scale of 1 to 10, how accurate would you say each sentence is?

> Danica Joy works most effectively in a structured environment that provides uniform operating procedures and a clear definition of performance standards. She prefers certainty, predictability, and consistent measurements in her work efforts.

If 10: What makes it a 10?

If 6 to 9: What would you change in the statement to make it a “10?”

If 1 to 5: Tell me how you are not that way.

Probing Suggestions

- Give me a few examples of past work situations when you had few procedures to follow and were able to use your own ingenuity and thinking to improve the way the job was done.
- Some jobs are highly structured with well-defined procedures that must be followed in order to achieve the end goal. Other jobs are more open-ended so people can use their own methods to achieve results. Which do you prefer? Give me examples of why you think this based upon your past experiences.

Dig Deeper

- "Tell me more” or “What’s another example?” or “Walk me through"
- “Give me an example of how that shows up in your job/at home/with your friends.”

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Vocabulary

Ask Danica Joy

On a scale of 1 to 10, how accurate would you say each sentence is?

> Danica Joy is an avid learner who picks up new concepts easily and quickly. She is interested in a wide variety of topics and she constantly seeks out new ideas and concepts. In new environments she can readily pick up information, social rules, priorities and culture. She is able to grasp subtlety and nuance in communication, which can positively impact the precision with which she interacts with others.

If 10: What makes it a 10?

If 6 to 9: What would you change in the statement to make it a “10?”

If 1 to 5: Tell me how you are not that way.

Probing Suggestions

- Tell me about a time over the past year when one of your job responsibilities changed and required you to learn how to do something you hadn't done in the past. What was your training like? Was it an organized process or would you consider it more of a "figure it out for myself" situation? Given a choice, in which scenario do you feel you learn most effectively?

Dig Deeper

- "Tell me more” or “What’s another example?” or “Walk me through"
- “Give me an example of how that shows up in your job/at home/with your friends.”

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Rapid Problem Solving

Ask Danica Joy

On a scale of 1 to 10, how accurate would you say each sentence is?

Danica Joy feels confident when asked to make quick decisions. She is comfortable in situations where she has to think on her feet. She can quickly identify patterns or themes from incoming information to solve problems.

If 10: What makes it a 10?

If 6 to 9: What would you change in the statement to make it a “10?”

If 1 to 5: Tell me how you are not that way.

Probing Suggestions

- Tell me about a time you felt like you were putting out fires at work. What kinds of problems were being thrown at you? How long did you have to come up with the solutions? Give me examples of a couple of the solutions you had to develop on the fly. How did you know what to do in these situations? How did you feel during the times when you had to react quickly and think on your feet?

Dig Deeper

- "Tell me more” or “What’s another example?” or “Walk me through"
- “Give me an example of how that shows up in your job/at home/with your friends.”

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Adaptability

Ask Danica Joy

On a scale of 1 to 10, how accurate would you say each sentence is?

Danica Joy can adjust and be flexible in her interpersonal relationships. She will respect and respond to people's legitimate expectations while maintaining her independence. She will not usually compromise just to please others.

If 10: What makes it a 10?

If 6 to 9: What would you change in the statement to make it a “10?”

If 1 to 5: Tell me how you are not that way.

Probing Suggestions

- Some companies will go to any length to keep people inside and outside the organization happy. Tell me about situations where you have been urged to do this but felt it was unreasonable or unachievable.
- There are times when other people will ask us to go beyond what makes sense and is comfortable for us in order to make them happy. Thinking about your work in the past, how have you made decisions regarding whether to either compromise or not compromise to keep someone else happy?

Dig Deeper

- "Tell me more” or “What’s another example?” or “Walk me through"
- “Give me an example of how that shows up in your job/at home/with your friends.”

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Responsiveness

Ask Danica Joy

On a scale of 1 to 10, how accurate would you say each sentence is?

> Danica Joy displays a high degree of emotional composure. She is perceived as stable under pressure and reliable in carrying out daily routines. She is less comfortable with rapid changes or continuing time pressures, and she would prefer to work at a steady and relaxed pace.

If 10: What makes it a 10?

If 6 to 9: What would you change in the statement to make it a “10?”

If 1 to 5: Tell me how you are not that way.

Probing Suggestions

- Tell me about a time when you had to deal with chaos and changing priorities on a regular basis. How did this compare to times when you were able to control and manage your schedule? Which situation is your preference and why?
- Some jobs require juggling lots of balls at once while others allow you to concentrate more intently on fewer tasks. Thinking back on your past experiences, which of these roles has been most rewarding to you? Tell me why and give me some examples.

Dig Deeper

- "Tell me more” or “What’s another example?” or “Walk me through"
- “Give me an example of how that shows up in your job/at home/with your friends.”

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Sociability

Ask Danica Joy

On a scale of 1 to 10, how accurate would you say each sentence is?

> Danica Joy is an affable and socially receptive person who tends to work well with a range of people. She avoids calling attention to herself, and she usually hesitates to initiate new relationships on her own. Typically, she is perceived as courteous, agreeable and open to a variety of personalities.

If 10: What makes it a 10?

If 6 to 9: What would you change in the statement to make it a "10?"

If 1 to 5: Tell me how you are not that way.

Probing Suggestions

- In the past, how have you divided your day between interacting and collaborating with others versus having time to plan, do paperwork, and handle e-mail? For you, what do you think is the best balance in terms of your time?
- In thinking about your past work, how have you divided your time between having regular people contact versus having time to work on your own? Give me a few examples.

Dig Deeper

- "Tell me more" or "What's another example?" or "Walk me through"
- "Give me an example of how that shows up in your job/at home/with your friends."

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Assertiveness

Ask Danica Joy

On a scale of 1 to 10, how accurate would you say each sentence is?

> Danica Joy is a moderately assertive person who is steady and consistent in her work approach. She moves forward most assuredly in situations where she has acquired hands-on experience and has a good grasp of what she needs to do to get results. She most prefers to follow tried-and-true methods.

If 10: What makes it a 10?

If 6 to 9: What would you change in the statement to make it a “10?”

If 1 to 5: Tell me how you are not that way.

Probing Suggestions

- Sometimes it makes sense to step back and assess a situation rather than jump in and take action. Tell me about some times where you waited before moving forward. How did this approach work for you and others?
- In dealing with others who've worked with you, think about your most effective team member or manager. What would she or she say about how you use your assertiveness to get the job done? What would this person say about situations when you might have used either more or less assertiveness and been more effective?

Dig Deeper

- "Tell me more” or “What’s another example?” or “Walk me through"
- “Give me an example of how that shows up in your job/at home/with your friends.”

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Optimism

Ask Danica Joy

On a scale of 1 to 10, how accurate would you say each sentence is?

Danica Joy maintains a generally positive sense of the future, and likes to see positives in others and situations. She will sometimes maintain this positive sense even when the objective situation does not warrant it.

If 10: What makes it a 10?

If 6 to 9: What would you change in the statement to make it a “10?”

If 1 to 5: Tell me how you are not that way.

Probing Suggestions

- Some people seem to feel that everything will probably be OK. Others seem to be constantly looking for what might go wrong. Where do you come out on this? Give me a couple of examples.
- When approaching difficult situations, how much thought do you give to potential problems that could occur? Give me some examples of times you've anticipated challenges that may or may not have materialized.

Dig Deeper

- "Tell me more” or “What’s another example?” or “Walk me through"
- “Give me an example of how that shows up in your job/at home/with your friends.”

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Job Considerations II

As you read these statements to Danica Joy and ask follow-up questions, listen for examples that demonstrate the mismatch or fit between Danica Joy and the Team: Executive Assistant job.

Logical Problem Solving

Ask Danica Joy

On a scale of 1 to 10, how accurate would you say each sentence is?

> Danica Joy works very well with complex problems and strategic issues. She can explain her solutions logically and can communicate them in such a way as to gain buy-in from others.

If 10: What makes it a 10?

If 6 to 9: What would you change in the statement to make it a “10?”

If 1 to 5: Tell me how you are not that way.

Probing Suggestions

- Thinking back over the past year, tell me about a particularly complex problem you faced. What level of responsibility did you have for resolving the issue? Walk me through the plan you developed for implementing your solution. How did you involve others in coming up with the plan? How did you determine the timeframe you'd need? What issues did you anticipate up front that might potentially be a challenge? Once you started, what roadblocks did you face? How did you handle those issues? How did you feel about the results?

Dig Deeper

- "Tell me more” or “What’s another example?” or “Walk me through"
- “Give me an example of how that shows up in your job/at home/with your friends.”

Considerations

- She may at times find herself bogged down by overcomplicating issues which might have been solved more quickly
- She may make simple issues more complicated than they really are.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Spatial Visualization

Ask Danica Joy

On a scale of 1 to 10, how accurate would you say each sentence is?

Danica Joy prefers tasks that don't involve visualizing complex systems with multiple variables or moving parts. Tasks such as visualizing engineering, technical, mechanical, or structural problems, and other spatial requirements will generally not be her strengths.

If 10: What makes it a 10?

If 6 to 9: What would you change in the statement to make it a “10?”

If 1 to 5: Tell me how you are not that way.

Probing Suggestions

- Some people enjoy working with abstract ideas and concepts; others enjoy working with mechanical, structural, or design tasks. Which do you prefer?

Dig Deeper

- "Tell me more” or “What’s another example?” or “Walk me through"
- “Give me an example of how that shows up in your job/at home/with your friends.”

Considerations

- It may be difficult for her to give others direction on changes and corrections in the areas of manufacturing, tangible structures, or construction of any kind.
- She may find it difficult to think about and understand changes to designs, structures, and processes.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Intensity

Ask Danica Joy

On a scale of 1 to 10, how accurate would you say each sentence is?

Danica Joy strives for mutually agreeable solutions to conflicts and obstacles. She will want to collaborate to gain consensus and approval at work.

If 10: What makes it a 10?

If 6 to 9: What would you change in the statement to make it a “10?”

If 1 to 5: Tell me how you are not that way.

Probing Suggestions

- All of us have times when we get frustrated with something at work. Some people express their frustration outwardly, and some keep it contained. Which one best describes how you typically react? Give me examples of a couple of situations where this has occurred.
- Think about a time when you felt your boss was not making the right decision. How did you deal with the situation?

Dig Deeper

- "Tell me more” or “What’s another example?” or “Walk me through"
- “Give me an example of how that shows up in your job/at home/with your friends.”

Considerations

- She will sometimes be reluctant to confront situations or express herself.
- She will sometimes internalize her thoughts to avoid confrontation or disagreement.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Operating Style

Danica Joy's behavior traits combine together in unique ways to impact the way she works with and communicates with others.

Read each statement below to Danica Joy. Ask Danica Joy to assess the accuracy of each statement on a scale of 1 to 10.

Communication

Ask Danica Joy

On a scale of 1 to 10, how would you rate the accuracy of the following statements?

Danica Joy is cordial and low key in her communications, and she is comfortable listening and patiently developing rapport. She generally impresses people as down-to-earth, unpretentious, and sure of herself. She is not quick to impose her ideas, as she likes time to listen and think things through before responding. She tends to be purposeful and matter-of-fact when expressing or promoting her views. Being independent and self-reliant, she may not actively seek unnecessary communication with others, particularly when she is focusing on priority tasks and projects.

Decision Making

Ask Danica Joy

On a scale of 1 to 10, how would you rate the accuracy of the following statements?

Danica Joy takes time to gather the facts and to impartially evaluate options. She emphasizes common-sense reasoning and practical benefits to justify her choices. She is deliberate and patient in her problem-solving approach. She avoids being influenced by social pressures and popular opinion. She trusts her own assessments and conclusions and does not depend heavily on others for advice or validation. She is apt to be most receptive to opposing views that are fact-based.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Ideal Environment

Ask Danica Joy

On a scale of 1 to 10, how would you rate the accuracy of the following statements?

Danica Joy is a quietly resolute and self-reliant person who enjoys managing her time and devising work strategies independently. She does not look to others for detailed direction and close monitoring to keep herself motivated. She is receptive to identified goals but prefers having a choice of methods for achieving them. She may resist a highly structured or restrictive environment. She seeks reasonable privacy and the freedom to work largely on her own. She works calmly and steadily, and she may be uneasy with many rapid changes, urgent demands, or unplanned deadlines.

Ideal Supervisor

Ask Danica Joy

On a scale of 1 to 10, how would you rate the accuracy of the following statements?

Danica Joy's ideal supervisor is comfortable delegating and providing her with choices and problem-solving responsibility. She likes to be self-managed and to have freedom to develop work strategies. She can be thorough and systematic on her own without step-by-step direction. She may feel stifled by a highly structured or bureaucratic environment. She is very much a personal performer who values concrete goals and tangible rewards as well as the opportunity to operate autonomously.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Team Dynamics

Ask Danica Joy

On a scale of 1 to 10, how would you rate the accuracy of the following statements?

While Danica Joy is not highly extroverted or forcefully assertive, she enjoys solving practical problems and working with people on a purposeful, collaborative basis. She is congenial and good-natured in her social interactions, and she has good capacity for cultivating positive relationships with peers. She avoids getting emotionally involved with people and losing objectivity. She is quietly independent, and she likes to pursue her priorities while treating others respectfully and resolving differences through cooperative give-and-take.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Descriptive Review

Danica Joy's traits do not exist in isolation of each other; each trait impacts the other. Below is an integrated view of Danica Joy. Read this section to Danica Joy and ask her to rate the accuracy of it on a scale of 1 to 10.

Danica Joy can work effectively and cooperatively with people, teams and established procedures. She will be assertive, patient and deliberate in pursuit of her objectives. She is aggressive and able to take initiative. She may not be as forceful when dealing with people since she prefers to focus on getting a job done rather than controlling others. She has good behavioral control. Although she solves problems quickly, she is not one to react with undue haste, and her measured, deliberate responses can have a calming effect on others.

She can adjust and be flexible in her interpersonal relationships. She will respect and respond to people's legitimate expectations while maintaining her independence. She will not usually compromise just to avert conflict. She prefers to work within a fairly well-structured environment. She enjoys having latitude and areas of choice but is uncomfortable with open-ended jobs that provide little feedback on performance. She is low-key and thoughtful in her approach to social influence and persuasion. She is not motivated by a strong need for social dominance or control.

Danica Joy will interact with people in a businesslike or polite manner. She is most at ease with people she knows and will be purposeful in seeking out new relationships. She is often upbeat and positive in attitude. She strives for mutually agreeable solutions to conflict and obstacles. She will seek to maintain harmony rather than engage in confrontation.

She is a natural problem solver and likes a steady flow of new problems at work. She can quickly identify solutions to daily problems as well as work methodically through larger, more complex issues. She can provide logical and linear explanations that greatly aid in her communication and persuasion.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Candidate Report Rating

Use the space below to verify the overall report with Danica Joy.

Overall Rating On a scale of 1 to 10, how would you rate this report?	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Most Accurate Specifically, what was most accurate about the report?
Least Accurate What would you say was least accurate?
Overall Comments Overall, do you have any comments or feedback about the report?

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

2: Thought Process Interview

Step One: Prepare for the Thought Process Interview

1. Review the Interview Tips from CV
    - With open-ended questions, the conversation can go in many directions—be prepared to ask great questions, listen, and analyze
2. Study the questions; make edits and add your own if necessary.
3. Check your mindset
    - Stay objective.
    - Be Thorough. Don't skip questions!

Step Two: Conduct the Interview

1. Segue from the Job Fit Verification:

> Thank you for your candor! I'd like to ask a few more questions. Before we get started, would you like to take a break? Can I get you some water/coffee?

2. Take notes throughout the interview, capturing words and phrases Danica Joy uses as exactly as possible.

Step Three: Decision Point

1. STOP if Danica Joy is not a match, and exit with class.

> The role we are currently offering would not be the best match for your talents. I'd like to stay in touch and if I hear of anything that would be a good fit for you, I will certainly let you know. I would also be happy to hear from you if you know of anyone who you feel would be a good fit for our organization.

2. MOVE FORWARD if Danica Joy is a match.

> You are a close match for this position, and I'd like to continue the interview process. Would you be available for another interview tomorrow / later this week / early next week?

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Thought Process

1. What did you do to prepare for this interview?

2. What are your strengths? What would _____ (e.g., your broker, your manager) say are your strengths?

3. What are your weaknesses? What would _____ (e.g., your broker, your manager) say are your weaknesses?

4. Give 2 or 3 specific instances of when you were trained really well.

5. Give 2 or 3 specific instances of when you were trained poorly.

6. Give 2 or 3 specific instances of when you were managed really well.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

7. Give 2 or 3 specific instances of when you were managed poorly.

8. How do you motivate yourself to do things really well that you do not like to do?

9. How do you set goals?

10. How do you hold yourself accountable to meeting those goals?

11. Describe a major career decision you have made and the steps you went through to make it.

12. Describe a major personal decision you have made and the steps you went through to make it.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

13. Think of a major career accomplishment you made. What happened? What was your contribution? How did your contribution impact the outcome? What lessons did you learn?

14. Think of a major personal accomplishment you made. What happened? What was your contribution? How did your contribution impact the outcome? What lessons did you learn?

15. How long would you be willing to fail before you succeed at a task?

16. Think about a big mistake you have made in your career or personal life. What happened? What did you do? What lessons did you learn? How did your life change?

17. How would you describe the relationship you would like to have with your co-workers?

18. How would you describe the relationship you would like to have with your manager or supervisor?

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

19. How would you describe the relationship you currently have with your co-workers and manager or supervisor?

20. Who are the 3 people you most like, admire, and respect, and why?

21. Who have been your most outstanding co-workers or employees, and why?

22. What defines a good performer on the job?

23. What defines a bad performer on the job?

24. In what kind of working environment are you most productive?

25. In what kind of working environment are you least productive?

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

26. What are your long-term career goals?

27. Why do you think you are a strong candidate for this position?

28. If we don’t get together on this job, what career move will you make next?

29. From everything you’ve learned about our organization, tell me how you feel you’d make a contribution.

30. If we're sitting here a year from now celebrating what a great year it's been for you in this role, what did we achieve together?

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

3: References

Step One: Prepare

1. Review the reference worksheets.
2. Check your mindset
   - Stay objective
   - Interpret what you hear and don't hear: People may be hesitant to speak negatively—but that doesn't mean they only have good things to say.

Step Two: Check the References

1. Get at least 3 third level references.
2. Ask each of the references you talk with for the name of another reference (not on the original list). This will take you two levels deep.

   > Who else do you know who has experience with Danica Joy and can give us a different perspective? Do you happen to have their phone number?

3. Use the same script to ask the second-level references for additional references to go three levels deep. If some of the references object to giving names:

   > Reference Objection: I don't know if I should share other names.
   > Interviewer: In our company we have a discipline of identifying other people who have worked with Danica Joy so we can get to know her better. As a hiring manager, I am held accountable to getting as much feedback as possible. Who do you recommend I talk to so I can get to know Danica Joy better?

Step Three: Decision Point

1. STOP if Danica Joy is not a match, and exit with class.
   At this point in the relationship, show respect for the time and effort Danica Joy has made and end the process in person, on the phone, or with a handwritten note.

   > The role we are offering would not make the most of your incredible talents. I have really enjoyed getting to know you and would like your permission to keep your information on file, so if we do have a position matching your profile and talent in the future, we can bring you back in. Thank you so much for your time, and I look forward to any future opportunities we may be able to share.

2. MOVE FORWARD if Danica Joy is a match—conduct the defense

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Candidate's Reference List

1. Job References
	Name	Relationship	Approximate Date Worked With
	Telephone	E-mail Address
2. References from your Industry
	Name	Relationship	Approximate Date Worked With
	Telephone	E-mail Address
3. Personal References or References from your Customers
	Name	Relationship	Approximate Date Worked With
	Telephone	E-mail Address

Read this very carefully before signing your name!

Permission to Contact Your References

By signing below, I give Keller Williams Realty permission to contact all of the references that I listed plus any other people that my references suggest that you, Keller Williams Realty, contact.

_____ _____

Your Signature Date

Comments: _____ _____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Reference Check Script Worksheet

Reference
Name: _____ Phone Number: _____ Level: ___

Introductory Script: Hello! My name is _____ from _____. We are speaking with _____ about a possible position as a _____. He/she has given us your name as a reference. May I take a few minutes of your time to ask you some questions?

1)	How is it that you know _____? Could you please describe your relationship with him/her?
2)	What do you feel _____'s strengths are? What is he/she really good at?
3)	What about weaknesses or opportunities for improvement?
4)	As _____'s consultant and mentor moving forward, I'd like to be effective in helping him/her grow. What are some of the areas that I could help him/her in terms of personal and professional growth?
5)	Describe _____ leadership skills. Do you feel he/she would be effective in a leadership role?

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Reference Name: _____ for _____

6)	(Note: This question is optional and should be used when there is a concern about a key characteristic from the KW Job Profile.) I need a person who demonstrates a high level of _____ (characteristic). To me this means _____ (definition). On a scale of 1 to 10, with 10 being extremely _____ (characteristic), how would you rate this candidate?
7)	Would you work with (or hire) _____ again? ☐ Yes. ☐ No. Why? / Why not?
8)	In your opinion, what type of work is he/she best suited for?
9)	What else would you like to tell me about _____ that we have not discussed yet?
10)	Who else do you know who has experience with _____ and can give us a different perspective? Do you happen to have their phone numbers?

Wrap-up

Thank you for your time! Hopefully we will be able to return the favor of your time!

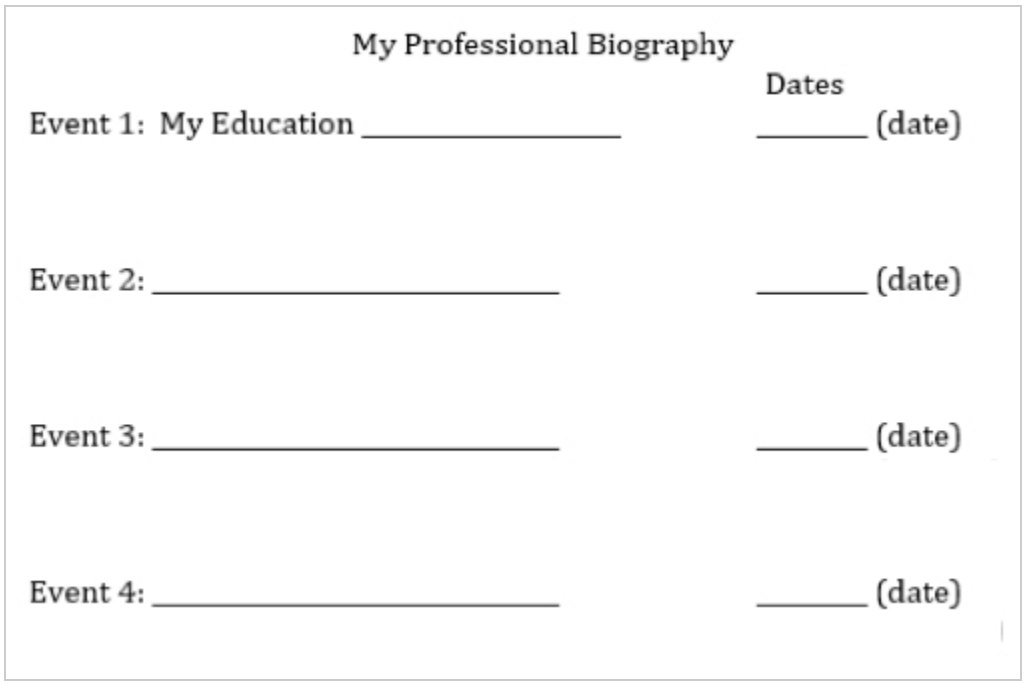

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

4: Life Story Interview

Step One: Prepare for the Life Story Interview

1. Gather several different colored markers and a flipchart.

2. Study the format

My Professional Biography

Dates

Event 1: My Education _____ _____ (date)

Event 2: _____ _____ (date)

Event 3: _____ _____ (date)

Event 4: _____ _____ (date)

3. Check your mindset.

   - Stay objective
   - Remember: It is fine if Danica Joy brings up personal information as she is interviewed, but you as the interviewer may not ASK about it.

Step Two: Conduct the Interview

1. Position the flip chart right so Danica Joy is seated right in front. Stand next to the flip chart, so you can see Danica Joy and write on the flip chart at the same time.

2. Using a black or blue marker, at the top of the flip chart, write “My Professional Biography,” and on the left side, write “Event 1: My Education.”

3. Draw a vertical line about three-fourths of the way across the page to divide right from left, and at the top of the right section of the page, write “Dates.”

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

4. Write the story of their professional journey.

> What we're going to do now is write your professional autobiography together, starting with the last time you were in school and moving forward. It's like your résumé, but we're going to go deeper than that. This is a chronological narrative of the defining events in your life. Inside each event, I'd like to know what you did, what happened, and what you learned.
>
> Let's start with the first event. When did you finish your education?
> (Write the answer under "Dates".)
>
> What happened?
> (Write the answer under "Event." You may switch colors for each line—it's easier to follow.)
>
> What were your "highs"?
> (Write the answers.)
>
> What disappointments did you have?
> (Write the answers.)
>
> Tell me about what you learned through this experience.
> (Write the answers.)
>
> Anything else you would like to add?
> If yes: (Add the information, then repeat the question until you get a no.)
>
> When no:
> Okay, when was the next major event in your life?
> (Write the answer next to "Event.")
> What was that?
> (Write the answer, for example, "My First Job" or "My Next Job.")

5. Follow the script and continue adding chapters, one at a time, picking up with the question "What happened?"—up to and including their current job or activity.

6. After you are finished, and just for fun, ask the candidate what title they would suggest for their professional biography.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Step Three: Decision Point

1. STOP if Danica Joy is not a match, and exit with class

   At this point in the relationship, show respect for the time and effort Danica Joy has made and end the process in person, on the phone, or with a handwritten note.

   > The role we are offering would not make the most of your incredible talents. I have really enjoyed getting to know you and would like your permission to keep your information on file, so if we do have a position matching your profile and talent in the future, we can bring you back in. Thank you so much for your time, and I look forward to any future opportunities we may be able to share.

2. MOVE FORWARD if Danica Joy is a match—segue into the Motivational Interview.

   > This has been great! Thank you for sharing! I am really enjoying learning more about you. Let's take a quick break and continue. (Offer a beverage and give Danica Joy 5-10 minutes to relax.)

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

5: Motivational Interview

Step One: Prepare

1. Gather at least 4 different colored markers and a flipchart
2. Study the format

3. Have your Candidate Reference List ready
4. Check your mindset
   - Stay objective
   - Remember: It is fine if Danica Joy brings up personal information as she is interviewed, but you as the interviewer may not ASK about it.

Step Two: Conduct the Interview

1. Position the flip chart so Danica Joy is seated right in front. You stand next to the flip chart, so you can see Danica Joy and write on the flipchart at the same time.
2. Start by drawing a vertical line down the center and a horizontal line across the middle, resulting in four squares on the flip chart. Ask her what her two biggest priorities are besides Job and Money, then enter those priorities in the headings for squares 3 and 4.
3. Together, you and Danica Joy will fill in the details of motivation on the flip chart.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

4. Capture their vision for the future

> I want you to pretend that you and I are sitting in this room five years from now, and I ask you how the past five years have been. You say, “Awesome!”
>
> Question 1
> What has to happen in the Job dimension of your life for you to be able to say “Awesome” five years from now?
> (Summarize her answer in that upper left square. If she has more than one answer, list each answer in bulleted format.)
>
> Question 2
> How do you envision that? What would it mean for that to happen?
> (For example: Danica Joy may have said he/she wants to make a lot of money; you must find out exactly what a lot of money looks like to Danica Joy. Using a different color marker, enter her answer in the same box.)
>
> Question 3
> Why would that achievement be important to you? How would that make you feel?
> (Using a different color marker, enter their answer in the same box.)
>
> Question 4
> What will having this do for you? What do you get? What impact would this have on you? Give me an example.
> (Using a different color marker, enter their answer in the same box.)

5. Repeat the above questions and process for each of the priorities in the other three squares (Money and the other two). You might also consider adding a fifth square, for which you ask her, “What else is important?” When done, step back and ask if there is anything she would like to add.

6. Review the chart with Danica Joy. Circle words that stand out. Ask the Danica Joy if these are the words that really motivate her.

7. Reflect with Danica Joy whether it’s possible for her to achieve all the things that are important to her through this role, or if their priorities are in conflict. Explore with her whether this job would get her closer to the things she values most.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Step Three: Decision Point

1. STOP if Danica Joy is not a match, and exit with class.
   At this point in the relationship, show respect for the time and effort Danica Joy has made and end the process in person, on the phone, or with a handwritten note.

> The role we are offering would not make the most of your incredible talents. I have really enjoyed getting to know you and would like your permission to keep your information on file, so if we do have a position matching your profile and talent in the future, we can bring you back in. Thank you so much for your time, and I look forward to any future opportunities we may be able to share.

2. MOVE FORWARD if Danica Joy is a match—check their references

> Thank you so much for your time today! I've asked you a lot of questions and now I'd like to switch gears and share the opportunity we have to offer (share the company vision). Let me tell you the role I think you can play in this (speak to their motivations/goals. Be persuasive and energetic).
>
> I'd like to continue the process by checking your references—could you please fill out our reference check form, sign it, and send it back to me as soon as possible? Once I have checked your references, I'll be in touch.
>
> I'd also like you to meet with the team. This will give you all a chance to get to know each other. Please ask them any questions you have about the job.
>
> (If you are arranging lunch) _____ (name of social chair) will be in touch to make lunch plans.
>
> (If team is immediately available) They can meet with you now. Would like a cup of coffee/glass of water?

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

6: Group

Step One: Prepare for the Group Interview

1. Invite the team members the candidate will be working with.
2. Go over your expectations—what questions would you like them to ask?
3. Share the highlights and any concerns from your interviews.
4. Go over Danica Joy's KPA - they can help you verify the profile.
5. Let them know this is not a democracy.

   > This is not a vote. It is your opportunity to give your feedback on how well you think Danica Joy will fit in with the team.

6. Check your mindset.
   - Make this the fun part!
     The Group Interview is not a serious grilling process, but rather an easygoing, casual, and friendly conversation between peers in a relaxed setting.

Step Two: Conduct the Group Interview

1. Designate the 'social chair'
   - You do not attend this interview!
   - Assign a person on your team who is friendly and sociable to spearhead this interview and be Danica Joy's reference point.
2. When the group returns from lunch/coffee, meet with them to gather their observations.
   - Do they think Danica Joy would be a good fit for the team? Yes No
   - Do they express any serious reservations? Yes No

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Step Three: Decision Point

1. STOP if Danica Joy is not a match, and exit with class.

   At this point in the relationship, show respect for the time and effort Danica Joy has made and end the process in person, on the phone, or with a handwritten note.

   > The role we are currently offering would not be the best match for your considerable talents. I have really enjoyed getting to know you and would like your permission to keep your information on file, so if we do have a position matching your profile and talent in the future, we can bring you back in. Thank you so much for your time, and I look forward to any future opportunities we may be able to share.

2. MOVE FORWARD if Danica Joy is a match—check their references

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

7: Defense

Step One: Prepare for Defense

1. Share copies of all of the important documents you have collected.

    - The job profile and résumé
    - Notes from the screening phone call
    - Danica Joy's KPA Job Fit Report and your notes from the Verification process, including Thought Process
    - Flip charts and notes from the Life Story and Motivational interviews
    - Notes from the Group interview and reference-check process

Step Two: Conduct the Defense

The committee reviews steps 1, 2, and 3 of the process and brainstorms several key questions to draw out the upside and downside of a potential hire.

Step One—Filter

1. Review the job profile and résumé.
    - Does Danica Joy have the knowledge, skills, track record, and culture to get the job done? Where is Danica Joy's match? Where is she a mismatch?
    - Is Danica Joy Potential Talent, Emerging Talent, or Proven Talent?

Step Two—Interviews

1. Job Fit: did the verification confirm Danica Joy's personality profile is a match?
2. Thought Process: does her thinking and culture make her a good fit for our organization? Will she stay?
3. Life Story: does Danica Joy's track record show a pattern of success?
4. Motivation: will this role get her closer to achieving what she most values?

Step Three—Perspective

1. Did Danica Joy fit in with the team?
2. Does her references—including the 3-deep references—confirm that she can do what she says she can?

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Brainstorm—With the team, think of every conceivable answer to these questions.

1. Can Danica Joy be successful in this position? Why?

2. Imagine she fails in the first year. What might be the one thing that could have caused that, based on what you know about Danica Joy? Can it be avoided?

3. Imagine Danica Joy is succeeding, yet decides to leave. What was probably the one thing that drove her decision? Can it be avoided?

Step Three: Decision Point

1. STOP if Danica Joy is not a match, and exit with class.

   At this point in the relationship, show respect for the time and effort Danica Joy has made and end the process in person, on the phone, or with a handwritten note.

   > The role we are offering would not make the most of your incredible talents. I have really enjoyed getting to know you and would like your permission to keep your information on file, so if we do have a position matching your profile and talent in the future, we can bring you back in. Thank you so much for your time, and I look forward to any future opportunities we may be able to share.

2. MOVE FORWARD if Danica Joy is a match—you are ready to make an offer!

   > Could you come back to meet with me _____ (date and time)? We'll need about an hour. Great! Thank you! Really looking forward to it!

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

8: Expectations and Offer

Step One: Prepare for Expectations Conversation

1. Review the expectations conversation and the topics you will be covering.

    - How candid you will be with each other when communicating honestly. This is a key to knowing how to communicate bad news.
    - What Danica Joy's "hot buttons" are on the job—how you win or lose with her.
    - How to handle sensitive issues.
    - The job description—what Danica Joy will actually be doing.
    - The standards Danica Joy will have to meet—what level of quality and service is required.
    - How you will hold her accountable.

Step Two: Conduct the Expectations Conversation

1. As you ask each of the questions, note the answer given. As you share your expectations, record them as well.

2. You may enter your answers on the document prior to the meeting with Danica Joy. If you do that, be sure to note any differences in the information you provide during the meeting on the form.

3. Give the completed form to Danica Joy and have her initial and date each page before returning it to you.

Step Three: Decision Point

1. It is unlikely that you or Danica Joy will opt out of going into business together at this stage of the process, but do not rule it out as an option. If the expectations conversation is not mutually satisfactory, it is not too late to hit the eject button!

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Expectations Conversation

1. Honesty Expectations

- On a scale of 1–10, with 10 being completely candid, how honest do you want me to be with you _____?

- What does that mean to you? Give me an example of when someone was that honest with you?

- On a scale of 1–10, I (employer) want you to be honest with me at a level of _____.

- What that means to me is:

Manager _____ Date _____

Position _____ Employee Signature _____

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Expectations Conversation

2. Win/Lose Expectations

- How does somebody win with you?

- Here is how someone wins with me.

- How does somebody lose with you?

- Here is how somebody loses with me.

Manager _____ Date _____

Position _____ Employee Signature _____

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Expectations Conversation

3. Sensitive Issue Expectations

- If a sensitive issue should arise, how would you like me to address it with you?

- This is how I would like you to address sensitive issues with me.

4. Job Description Expectations

Provide the candidate a copy of the job description. Review the job description with the candidate.

- What excites you the most?

- Do you have any thoughts/concerns?

Manager _____ Date _____

Position _____ Employee Signature _____

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Expectations Conversation

5. Job Standards Expectations

- Here are the standards you must meet in performing your job.

- What are your thoughts and/or concerns?

6. Accountability Expectations

- Accountability is a very important aspect of working here. Here is how you'll be held accountable and why:

- What are your thoughts and/or concerns?

Manager _____ Date _____

Position _____ Employee Signature _____

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Offer

Step One: Prepare for the Offer

1. Customize the offer letter and Orientation to Danica Joy.

2. Check your Mindset!

    - This is the first step of your future employer-employee relationship; set the tone by making a positive impact.

Step Two: Conduct the Offer

1. Be enthusiastic and convey your excitement to Danica Joy!

    - How many candidates did Danica Joy beat out? Tell him!
    - Describe what accomplishments really stood out and the impact you know she will make on your company.
    - Tell Danica Joy how impressed her future colleagues are and how excited they are to be working together.

2. Use the offer letter (following pages) to thoroughly explain the pay and benefits, as well as assuming her buy-in with the orientation schedule.

3. Get whatever commitment you can. Most candidates want time to consider the offer, but go ahead and ask Danica Joy what they think of the offer and tune into any hesitations you sense—you may be able to provide her with more information to influence her decision.

Step Three: Decision Point

1. It is unlikely that you or Danica Joy will opt out of going into business together at this stage of the process, but do not rule it out as an option. If the offer is not mutually satisfactory, it is not too late to hit the eject button!

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Offer Letter

Warning: Before using this letter, be sure you have your attorney review it for issues that are state specific.

(DATE)

(CANDIDATE NAME AND ADDRESS)

Dear (FIRST NAME),

We are pleased to extend to you an offer of employment at (COMPANY) as a (POSITION). The terms of employment, commencing on or before (START DATE), will be as follows:

Compensation:

You will receive a/an (SALARY TIME PERIOD) salary of $(AMOUNT) to be paid (PAY PERIOD), subject to any and all necessary withholding and deductions for income taxes, FICA, Social Security, and similar items.

Benefits:

(COMPANY) offers a variety of benefits, including (BENEFITS LIST). Please refer to benefits documentation for specific details of the plans. You will receive your benefits package (BENEFITS PACKET RECEIVED DATE). Benefits are effective (WHEN BENEFITS START).

(STATE – DELETE IF PARAGRAPH DOESN'T APPLY) is an "At Will" employment state. Accordingly, your employment with (COMPANY) will be "at will," and can be terminated by you or by (COMPANY) at any time, with or without cause or advance notice. By accepting this job offer, you agree that no contrary representation has been made to you.

In no event shall your employment be construed as a contractual relationship between (COMPANY) and you, or guaranteeing employment for any specific period of time. In the event the employee decides to terminate the employment relationship, the company would appreciate 2 weeks written notice.

If you are in agreement with the above-mentioned terms, please confirm your agreement as soon as possible by signing the enclosed copy of this letter and returning it to us at your earliest convenience.

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved

Orientation Schedule

If you choose to accept the position, (COMPANY) will be conducting an Employee Welcome and Orientation on your first day of employment. During the orientation, you will be introduced to the company systems and you will complete your payroll, benefits, and federally required employment paperwork.

The Orientation and Enrollment meetings have been scheduled for the following dates and times:

- Employee Welcome
  8:15 a.m. on (START DATE) with (CONTACT)
- New Employee Orientation
  8:30 a.m. on (START DATE) with (CONTACT)
- Post-Offer Drug Test
  You will be sent to the appropriate off-site location

(COMPANY) is required by federal law to verify your eligibility to work in the United States. It is critical that you bring the items, listed below, to the orientation meeting. Without them, we will be unable to process a paycheck for you or enroll you, or your dependents, in our benefits plan.

- You will need form(s) of personal identification to complete your I-9 Form. Typically employees may bring their Social Security card and driver's license or your passport. Please see the attached list for acceptable documents.
- If you would like to take advantage of direct deposit, please bring a copy of a voided check for the banking account(s) involved.
- You will also need the birth dates and Social Security numbers of your family members if you plan to enroll them in the group health insurance or life insurance plans.

We are all excited at the prospect of your joining us here at (COMPANY), and believe that the confidence we have in your ability will be more than justified by your contributions in the years ahead.

Sincerely,

(PERSON MAKING OFFER)

(PERSON'S TITLE)

(COMPANY)

Accepted by:

_____ _____

Applicant Date

Copyright © 2026 All Rights Reserved